Music to Enjoy Felixstowe Recorded Music Society

Music and Wellbeing is the theme for Vicki MacIntyre's presentation on Wednesday 2 October. Why not come along and listen to her choices with us? They could be the perfect tonic! On 6 November we have Rod's Wartime, perfectly timed for Remembrance Day.

As always, the music starts at 7.30pm and the venue is The United Reformed Church Hall, Tomline Road, Felixstowe IP11 7PA. Visitors £3 including refreshments. Contact Rosalie Thomas: 01394 270491 for more details.

The Inner Wheel Club of Felixstowe

We don't meet officially in the summer after our handover lunch at the beginning of July, but we haven't been idle. The middle of July saw us enjoying a drink at the Wine Boutique in town to round off Jan's year as president, a nice informal chatty evening. Not satisfied with that we had a coffee morning at another member's when we went down memory lane, or Hamilton Road to be precise, using a 1954 Kelly's Directory. Many of our members have lived or been associated with the town since childhood so there were many anecdotes told.

In August our new president arranged a fish and chip supper at The Hut on the prom. Friends also joined us and a total of thirty-five had a very enjoyable evening. The first Thursday in September will see us back at The Orwell ready for our new year.

Felixstowe Art Group

Tuesday 10 September, 7.30pm at Broadway House, Orwell Road, Felixstowe: Working With Soft Metals by Judith Scott

This will be a talk and demonstration by Judith. It promises to be a great evening. Visitors will be most welcome to this evening for a small charge of £2. Do come early for a good seat.

Our second meeting in September is for members only. If you would like to come along to all of our meetings then why not join the group? There's lots going on with meetings twice monthly. This is usually a talk and demonstration which is always very interesting and informative. We do sometimes have work evenings and also have outings.

As part of the group we have a painting session at the Conservative Club on a Thursday afternoon for a small charge, and we have our own little gallery at the bottom of Bent Hill if you would like to exhibit. You are always made most welcome and we cater for all levels.
